Warsaw, Octob. 29. N. S.

THE King of Poland has sent a Letter to the Cardinal Primate at Lowitz, to acquaint him with his Arrival, and to desire he will come to Court. Several Foreign Ministers have had Audience of the King, to o[ffer] their Offices for adjusting Matters between h[im] and the King of Sweden, and there is hopes that a Treaty will shortly be begun for that purpose. The Crown Referendary, whom the King had sent into Lithuania to appease the Troubles in that Country, is returned hither, without any success in his Commission, the Animosities between the Houses of Sapieha and Oginsky being grown to such a height, that neither side shews at present any disposition to an Accommodation. In the mean time great numbers of the Lithuanian Gentlemen continue in Arms, and commit daily Hostilities against each other.

Mittaw, November 2. The King of Poland's Forces are gone into Winter Quarters, part in Livonia, and the rest in Courland; And their Quarters are so disposed, that they may draw together in a very short time upon any sudden occasion. There has lately been published, a new Order of the King of Poland, That all English and Dutch Merchant Ships shall be freely permitted to go in and out of the Port of Riga; But they are to be searched at the Dunamunder Fort, whether they have any Contraband Goods on Board; And besides, if there be any thing at hand in the said Vessels which they can spare, and the King of Poland stands in need of for the use of his Forces, the same is to be delivered to them for ready Money. The last Advices from Livonia give an Account, That the King of Sweden landed at Pernaw the 17th of the last Month with an Army of about 12000 Men, and was soon after joined by Count Welling with about 20000; That most of the Principal Gentlemen of Livonia waited upon His Majesty at his Arrival, and offered to raise Troops for his Service, and many of the Country People did voluntarily come in to serve in his Army; That the King had appointed the General Rendezvous of his Forces to be at Wesenberg, about 18 German Miles from Narva, and intended as soon as they were got together, to endeavour the Relief of that Place. They write from Revel, that a considerable Reinforcement was come thither by Sea from Finland, and 9000 Finlanders more were daily expected to join the King of Sweden's Army. Our freshest Advices from the Muscovite Camp before Narva say, the Muscovites, upon the News of the King's Landing, had begun to intrench themselves, and that they had twice attempted to take the Fort of Iwanogrod by Storm, and were both times beaten off; And the Frost being already begun in these Parts, 'twill be very difficult for them to open Trenches, and carry on their Design against that Place by a formal Siege.

Dantzick, Novemb. 5. The Letters from Courland give an account, That the King of Poland's Forces are gone into Winter Quarters, 4000 Saxons are quartered in that Dutchy, the rest of the German Forces remain in Livonia, and the Li[thuanian] Troops are returned home. They write from Livonia, that the King of Sweden, upon his Arrival in those Parts, published a Declaration, promising to restore the Estates that were some time ago reunited to the Crown; and that divers of the most considerable Inhabitants of that Province have joined him with what Forces they could raise. Fresh Reinforcements were expected from Sweden and Finland, and the King intended, as soon as they should be arrived, to march against the Muscovites.

Copenhagen, Novemb. 9. Three Danish Battalions of Foot embarked in this Port four days ago, and set sail for Rostock, but were put back by contrary Wind; and this day the Wind changing, they put to Sea again. Monsieur Rosencrans, the Swedish Envoy, designs to embark with the first fair Wind, in order to attend the King his Master in Livonia.

Vienna, Novemb. 3. The young Prince, Son to the King of the Romans, was Christned the 30th of the last Month, and was named Leopold-Joseph-John-Thaddeus-Narcissus-Ignatius-Xavier-Philip; which was performed by Cardinal Collonitz in the Great Hall of the Palace, the Emperor and Empress being Godfather and Godmother, and the King of the Romans, the Arch-Duke and Arch-Dutchesses, being likewise present, with a great number of Persons of Quality, and on this occasion all the Cannon round the Town were discharged. The Publick Rejoicings for the Birth of this Prince have lasted three days; The States of the Lower Austria, according to Custom, have made a Present to the Queen of the Romans of 40000 Florins, and the Magistrates of this City have presented her with a Purse of 10000 Florins, and Presents are expected in like manner from the other Cities and Provinces in the Emperor's Hereditary Dominions. The Turkish Ambassador parted from Schwechet the 31st past, in order to continue his Journey towards Constantinople. They write from Peterwaradin, that the Imperial and Turkish Commissioners continue their Conferences for settling the Limits. These Advices add, that Count Teckely, the Sieur Petrozzi, and divers other Hungarians that were formerly
